Lower limit on the mass of the Lightest neutralino from LEP

The ALEPH collaboration at LEP

The final results on searches for supersymmetry at LEP performed by the ALEPH experiment have been interpreted in the framework of the Minimal Supesymmetric extention of the Standard Model. With these results lower limits on the mass of the lightest neutralino, an actractive dark matter candidate, have been derived.