

Measurement of the η_c width at Babar

B. Mayer^a representing the Babar collaboration

^a CEA-Saclay

This contribution describes the measurement of the total width of η_c produced in two-photon interactions. The sample of η_c used for the measurement was reconstructed in the decay $\eta_c \rightarrow K_s K \pi$, using the data collected by the BaBar detector since October 1999.